Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1, 3, 5, 7, 9,-10, 12-13, and 15-33 (renumbered as claims 1-27) are allowed. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record fails to disclose, teach, and/or fairly suggest the features as substantially described in the independent claims of the instant application. Specifically, there is no hint given in the prior art of record of "selecting first, second, third, and fourth subsets of software modules in the manner recited in the independent claims, where the first subset corresponds to a first path in the first tool that defines a first order of execution of the software modules in the first subset, the second subset corresponds to a second path in the second tool that defines a second order of execution of the software modules in the second subset, the third subset corresponds to a third path in the first tool that defines an order of execution of the software modules in the third subset, and the fourth subset corresponds to a fourth path in the second tool that defines an order of execution of the software modules in the fourth subset, where the third path is different from the first path, and the fourth path is different from the third path".

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Art Unit: 2474

2. For clarification purposes, the Examiner notes that the broadest reasonable interpretation of claims 3 and 10 drawn to a computer readable medium only covers forms of non-transitory media. This can be seen on page 13 lines 16-22, wherein the claimed computer readable medium is a program storage device/memory, for example "a hard disk, a ROM , a CD-ROM, a DRAM, or other RAM, a flash memory, a magnetic storage, an optical storage, registers, or other volatile and/or non-volatile memory".

Conclusion

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Aung Moe can be reached on (571)272-7314. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
